HUNT DEPOSITS: To confirm a booking a deposit of 25% is required on all trips. If unsuccessful in the drawing on single animal hunts, your deposit is returned. If you book a combination hunt, and are unsuccessful in drawing for one animal, but draw the other license, only on the animal you fail to draw a license is the deposit returned. Unless different arrangements are made when the hunt is booked. Should you draw only one license your hunt can be rescheduled to hunt the animal for which a license was obtained. Only upon failure to draw is a deposit returned, because of the expense of a lost booking. License applications withdrawn from the Wyoming Game and Fish by the client WILL NOT COUNT AS A FAILURE TO DRAW, therefore a deposit refund will not be granted by Strang and Son Outfitters. Deposits will be returned within 60 days of notification by the Game and Fish that you were unsuccessful obtaining a license. NOTE: In all other cases Strang and Son will refund deposits only if the Wyoming Game and Fish issue a license
